County Parkway to Rival America's Choicest

82-Mile River Drive Will Link Parks and Residential Suburbs

MILWAUKEE, oldest and largest of the national parks, is best suited to serve as the center of a national park system which will be a monument to the beautiful parks of the world. The Milwaukee park is in Milwaukee, the City of Lakes, in Wisconsin, and it is the nucleus of the Metropolitan Park System.

The proposed metropolitan park system will be a network of parks and parkways, linking the city with the suburbs, and extending north to Wisconsin River and south to Lake Michigan. It will include parks along the Wisconsin River, including the Park个性化 content here.
